A Holiday message from the Director's Desk.

Dear New Life Friend,

In this Christmas season as I reflect on the birth of our Savior, I am reminded that there was no room in the inn. The realization for Mary and Joseph to find a safe, secure, and warm place to bring forth the birth of their child was eminent. Luke 2:7 tells us, "And she brought forth her first born son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger because there was no room in the inn."

Today we can hardly imagine not having a place to give birth to a child. For most, no matter what the economic condition may be, there is always provision made.

But what happens when you are expecting a child and are addicted to substances? Where do you go then?

The urgent call comes to us from a mother who is trying to find placement for her daughter who is addicted to heroin, on the streets, and is pregnant. She has frantically searched for a program, but to not avail. The response has been, "Sorry, you don't qualify because you are expecting a child."

Our hearts go out to her as she sobs and asks, "Would you please take my daughter into your home?"

Counselors, pastors, social workers and family members are calling to inquire if we would accept young ladies in the program along with their children.

The answer is a resounding, "YES." This is one of the unique aspects about New Life Home.

Today, we have fifteen children along with their moms in the home. It is thrilling to watch God work not only in the hearts of the moms but also in the lives of their children. The healing and restoration that is taking place is beyond words.

At Christmas time and throughout the year we are grateful to be able to open our hearts and home to women who are single, pregnant, and women with children. New Life is the "inn", a haven where we welcome those that are hurting, broken, and bruised.

How are we able to continue to do this? It is through you, our friends, and our faithful supporters who stand with us praying and faithfully giving to this work.

We would ask that you would give generously this month. Our home remains open, warm, and inviting because of your loving support.

Our prayer is that many would have the opportunity to enter "the New Life Inn" and find hope and help for their lives.

May God richly bless you in this season with His peace and joy.

With our love and thanks,

George and Grace Rosado
